

EXPRESSION OF INTEREST AS HOST

We are looking for the FUEN Congress 2019 host.

The yearly FUEN Congress is the largest annual meeting of the autochthonous national minorities in Europe. Around 200 participants, policy makers, partners, and media representatives from all of Europe are expected to join.

We are looking for

- An experienced host,
- An engaged member who wants to present the concerns of minorities in a European context.

Requirements are

- Active FUEN membership
- Congress and conference facilities for around 200 participants
- Cooperation with minorities from your respective country/region
- Build-up of the organizing team
- A culturally framed programme
- Financial and logistical participation.

For preparation purposes the FUEN assembly of delegation plans 2 years in advance, whereby they award the congress. The FUEN assembly of delegation will decide who will host the congress 2019, on the 20.05.2017.

Please send your application to FUEN, by email to info@fuen.org, no later than 05.05.2017.

Expressions of interest for hosting the congresses in 2020, 2021, and 2022 are also very welcome to already send their applications to FUEN.
